Nature and more...

Barvi River

ACCOMODATION

The cottages have been made such that it blends with the natural environment. All cottages have roofs made of Mangalore tiles so that the rooms remain cool during the summers. Each cottage can accommodate 2 to 7 adults/children.

The campsite is enveloped with tall beautiful lush green trees and bushes.

Camp Evergreens jewel is the breathtaking Barvi river which is perennial. One can spend hours along the banks and watch the different species of birds or just dip your legs in the river or take a swim. We assure you that you will want to come back for more. Take one of the staff of Camp Evergreen to the river with you.

It's said "the clearest way into the universe is through a wild wilderness"

At Camp Evergreen we encourage you to be embraced by the raw form of nature as we know it.

Pathway

Camp Evergreen is the ideal weekend destination. Located on the banks of the river Barvi makes this location enviable and beautiful. The property boasts of a private hill as it's backdrop which gradually levels down towards the River Barvi. The camp site is built on the foothills, hence slightly elevated.

Camp Evergreen is only 80 kms away from Mumbai (Dadar) by road. One can also take a local train to Badlapur which falls on the central line and from there auto rickshaws will take you to Camp Evergreen, Barvi Dam, Badlapur.

The greenery and picturesque offers a complete solace with a touch of laziness. A perfect getaway...

CAMP EVERGREEN

- A Camping Experience by the River

Accommodation is available in Safari Family Cottages and Mountain Family Cottages which can accommodate small and large groups. The dining hall is spacious and can accommodate 120 guests at one time. There are two large playgrounds where one can play all types of outdoor games.

The walk to the river is through our own Mango plantation. Guests can laze under these Mango trees like how the locals do during the afternoons.

A generator back up ensures uninterrupted power supply for the comfort of all guests.

In Camp Evergreen you can participate in Indoor and outdoor games like Table Tennis, Carrom, Chess, foosball table, cricket, volleyball, badminton and football.

A dip in the swimming pond located in the lower part of the Camp site can be good entertainment.

Apart from this guests can participate in adventure activities such as trekking, use the zip line, rock climbing or just laze in the hammock or spend hours in the river which is fresh and flowing year round.

CUISINE

Camp Evergreen offers mouth watering local cuisine cooked by our very own cook who is born and brought up from the neighboring village. We try to procure fresh vegetables from the farmers so that healthy and nutritious meals are served to guests.
